Imagine

By Eve Wilson

Imagine yourself as a vast soul who has had many lifetimes. Maybe even on other worlds.

Imagine an even older, eternal part of you is an enlightened Being. Imagine that your limited human life is just a story your enlightened self designed to grow your full soul potential. This is merely one of many lifetime stories for that purpose.

Imagine the eternal, enlightened part of you is ready to end this long run of incarnations for soul growth, because everything needed is accomplished.

You, the vast soul built through many lifetimes, are ready to receive your Higher Self into this incarnation. Letting your soul and Higher Self, meld into one continuum of Being, acting through your human body, emotion, mind, and aura. This allows your sense of identity to shift from limited human, through vast soul, to eternal, enlightened Being.

Through this merging, you come home to the self you left behind so many lifetimes ago. Back when your Higher Self was one with the Oneness of All, unable to express individual self. Now, your beautifully designed and built soul is beginning to allow your unique facet of the One that is your Higher Self to express within this incarnation here on Earth.

This unified state was the goal of all that had gone before. The hard work to survive, to overcome, to love, to transcend hatred, fear, loneliness, death, pain, suffering, loss... All of this is what we used to build individual, unique, soul bodies that can learn to express and co-create with infinite other enlightened beings; each one a unique "facet" of the beautiful Oneness.

You are so much more than human, more than a vast soul. You are an eternal, enlightened Being who, through the journey of individuation, chose to forget that fact. You allowed your human self and your emerging soul to believe you were alone, not worthy, afraid, angry, lacking, struggling, and that was what life was about.

That story was never true, but it was necessary for a time.

Now we are ascending, which takes us beyond evolution into a new identity and experience of life. The world and our human bodies are rising out of suffering, limitation, separation, and fear, into what might seem to our minds, if we can imagine it, to be a magical state of light body. A kind of liquid crystal body, which is not limited to the laws of the world as we have known them.

My job, as a world healer and ascension worker, is to facilitate an easy transition from the old experience, whose contracts ended in 2012, into the new world experience. To coordinate this shift to unfold as gently and fully as possible for everyone.

Those who work with me support this process through learning to enter their own ascended experience. Together, we generate the beautiful substance that creates life, which I call the Holy Spirit/Force of Unity. This allows our Higher Selves to incarnate more fully and raises the vibration of Earth.

On Saturday, October 18th, 1-4 PM Eastern, I and my World Ascension Healer Team invite you to the first International Our World Ascension Event. Working with those around the world ready to strengthen unity, raise vibrations, identify with their eternal enlightened selves, and ground that into our world. Because each person is connected with many others working similar life experiences, what we do together will amplify through the world. It will eliminate blocks to vital life force, strengthen unconditional love, higher intelligence, and healing for all as they are ready for it. It will touch all life forms and elements of our beloved planet with healing and ascension.

Email evew@spiritualhealers.com to explore being a part of this experience. There will be a small fee, a sliding scale, and support materials. We will meet by audio call through a computer link. Because the work we will do is internal work, we won't want to be distracted by complicated visuals. I will guide you to the wisdom within you, which is one with your Higher Self. You'll bring that into your body and aura, where the work will be accomplished. There will be new ascended bodies, auras, chakras, cells, molecules, and atoms ready to be received throughout our world. Greater wholeness will ensue, and the world vibrations will rise.
